

ahpf scotland NEWS

January 2025 - The new Public Health Strategy for AHPs has been published. This report provides the vision and goals to support our ambition to further embed public health as part of AHP roles and to ensure the positive impact on public health by AHPs is recognised and valued.

It has been co-produced by AHP professional bodies and the 4 UK nations.

http://www.ahpf.org.uk/files/AHP%20UK%20Public%20Health%20Strategic%20Framework%202025-2030_final+links.pdf

January 2025 - Scotland's earn as you learn model, PREPARE, offers an alternative, immersive route to training in podiatry. PREPARE allows trainee podiatrists to earn a salary and be integrated into the NHS while studying to be HCPC registered.

Education is offered by Glasgow Caledonian University (GCU), while students are employed by the health board. With GCU offering hybrid delivery of the BSc in Podiatry, training becomes accessible to all, no matter where you live.

Find out more here: Podiatry Training and Education - NHSGCC

January 2025 - CAHPO has published a New Years blog, Allied Health Professionals – The Hidden Figures of Health and Social Care? Calling for AHP leaders at the executive management teams (EMTs). Read more here ↓

Allied Health Professionals – The Hidden Figures of Health and Social Care? – AHPs across health and social care.

October 2024 - AHPFS had a highly productive meeting with Cabinet Secretary for Health and Social Care, Neil Gray, at the Scottish Parliament in October 2024, where we discussed the crucial role of Allied Health Professionals (AHPs) in prevention, early intervention, rehabilitation, and delayed discharge. We also had a constructive discussion on addressing workforce challenges, exploring potential solutions, and the need for stronger representation at decision-making levels.

